City Council Rides Financial Dilemma

CROP "Trick or Treat" Party Is Planned For Youth Of All Churches

A stepped up food appeal by Christian Rural Overseas Program to the farmers and churchmen of America will reflect the greater role the churches will play in international relief in 1955.

Locally a Halloween "Trick or Treat" party for CROP has been planned for all young people of every demonination from 12 years up by the ministerial alliance

The youngsters will meet at the Presbyterian Church at 7 p. m. Saturday, October 30 for the party. This time, however, the party will be a case of give instead of get. All of the children will be given some form of identification and when they go from house to house for trick or treat favors will also accept donations for the CROP association.

America, through its churches, will make friends for the democratic way of life and the generosity of a church loving country. For every $1.00 donated by the people through their church the Government will give $20 worth of food to peoples of foreign countries needing assistance.

Residents have been urged to turn their porch lights on between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock Saturday night and welcome the young costumed "Trick or treaters" with a donation for CROP. A milk carton with a CROP sticker on it will identify the persons helping out in this program.

All countries having suffered loss of life and property in earthquakes, floods and wars will benefit from the Trick or Treat party.

VICTORY BELL — Cameron Yoemen and Rockdale Tigers will be fighting for an additional honor Friday night — the "Victory Bell", a beautiful bronze trophy that will be retained by the school who wins the annual Cameron - Rockdale football classic. The bell was salvaged from an old steam locamotive of the Rockdale, Sandow & Southern Railroad Company and brightly polished up for this purpose. The bell now rests on a metal base which is brightly decorated with the school colors of Rockdale, Blue and Gold, and Cameron's school colors, Maroon and Grey. A. A. Goehler, who is general manager of the RSS Railroad Co. stated that they hope the trophy will develop, "better relationships between the two schools." The names of the two high schools will be engraved on the bell and after each tussel, the year and score of the game will be engraved under the winner's name. The bell will remain on the campus of the winning school until the following year when the two teams from Milam County will vie for it again. Shown with the "Victory Bell" is Donna Haelbig, a Rockdale High School senior and three year Tiger cheerleader.

Sewage Plant, Water Improvements, Garbage Disposal Needed; No Funds

City councilmer. rested on the horns of a well-known dilemma their meeting in the city hall Tuesday night.

The many expensive needs of the city, expanded to a population of 7100 and with facilities planned for a population of 5,000, were broached but reached an unvereing standstill when the talk got as far as the money angle. The account is low while the needs are high.

Some of the improvements necessary in the immediate future for the health and comfort of Cameronites and shouldered by the seemingly weary councilmen were: (1) The need for a new deep water well supply or a filtration plant; (2) The dire need for a new sewer disposal plant, with Schafer of the State Health Department telling the council in no uncertain terms at last nights meeting, that the old plant has been rendered practically useless; (3) The immediate need to write the State Highway department guaranteeing an 80 foot right of way on Highway 36 from Kemp Street to Travis Street so that the highway will be improved and mended; (4) The drastic need for a garbage disposal system relieving the residents of the city of their garbage porblem.

Council men sidestepped the issues, and met them head on, but no matter how they were approached the ultimate decisions had to be postponed because of the same reason, finances.

First of the many evenings visitors to appear before the council was Jack Prescott who presented a warrant and bond for the new city grader for the councils approval.

Next to be presented to the council was Roy Taylor, representative of Lane Wells, who produced maps

John A. Smith Jr. was reelected to serve as President of the Milam County Farm Bureau, at the County Convention meeting in the Simon George Memorial Hall, Thursday night October 21. Smith was elected to serve as first vice president of the organization in 1952, and under his leadership as Chairman of Membership an increase of some several hundred new members were gained swelling the total membership well over the 1000 mark. In 1953 Mr. Smith was elected to head the Farm Bureau in Milam County, and the well organized, sound financial organization that it is today speaks for his ability in serving as a very capable leader. Smith is a very successful farmer and is interested in all programs that will benefit the farmer and rancher. He has given much of his individual time in the past year to the work of the Farm Bureau organization in Milam County.

Other officers elected were: Robert Jungmann, reelected to serve as first vice president. Jungmann was elected to first vice president in 1953 and under his leadership as Membership Chairman the organization has had a most successful membership drive which begin on October t. A nervous Roy Baskin presented papers, called on witnesses, put judgements in the courts mouth and swore in Mayor O. B. Horstmann, judge of the court in unprecedented trial proceedings, in the Corporation Court Friday morning against Charles C. Smith, Jr. and Hinton Pruett for parking meter violations.

The first case to be presented to the court was the parking ticket violation against Charles C. Smith, Jr., with his attorney Jack Prescott entering the plea of not guilty.

Smith, conspicious in his absence, was out of town on an appointment, according to Prescott and had employed Prescott to represent him. He added that they would agree to wait until Smith is back in town but that they were not asking for the court to wait until he was present.

Mayor Horstmann decided to proceed with the trial in the absence of Smith.

Time for Booster Immunization Shots, To Make Certain All Are Protected

Typhoid, Diptheria and Smallpox immunization shots through the ster tetinan shouts, through the County Health Unit's immunization program, will continue through the remainder of this month, according to Dr. John Bryson, head of the Health Unit.

The program is carried out extensively throughout the county, and all students from Ada Henderson or Yoe High school should contact their family doctor or Dr. Bryson at the County Health Unit office in downtown Cameron if it is time for their booster shots.

A booster shot should be given every three years for diptheria precautionary measures, every two years for typhoid and every five years for small pox.

In this day and age, with the modern means of transportation and the numerous contacts with a wide range of people made daily by the majority of the population necessitates the need for everyone to take precautions against communicable diseases.

One person with smallpox could sow the seeds of the disease from one end of the state to the other in a period of two days. An individual is sometimes powerless to protect fully his health by his own efforts, according to medical authorities, and for this reason the health function of the state, through the county health unit is entirely ligitimate and not related to socia-

Questions are sometimes raised, authorities report, as to the extent to which the state should go in caring for the health of its people, but few objections could be raised to the action of the state in furnishing protection to the people of that state from the hazards of communicable disease.

Dr. Bryson said that all students from the Ada Henderson or Yoe High School, the only two schools in Milam County not participating in the immunization program of the County Health Unit, will be given the shots upon request in his office in downtown Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs Jim Gandy of Hanover were honored with a house warming in their new home, a large crowd attended and they received many useful and lovely spent the weekend with her parents gifts.

Unoffical Milam Football Title At Stake In Rockdale Friday

Milam County's unofficial football title will be at stake Friday night when the two powerful grid teams from the county clash on Tiger Field, Rockdale. It's the Cameron Yoemen up against the Rockdale Tigers in a District 22-AA meeting.

Last year the title went to Cameron after the local eleven got bounced around a bit by the determined Tigers, but the score finally ended up, 28-14 in favor of Yoe High School.

This year the Tigers began the season with high spirits, but ended up on the bottom of the dope bucket last Friday night when they were stomped by the Georgetown Eagles, 25-6, in the first District 22-AA game. While the Tigers were bitterly losing to the Eagles Cameron had no easy time claming down the fired-up Taylor Ducks, who were celebrating homecoming. It was a swell threat, though, as the Yoemen ended up with the dessert and a 21-14 victory. The game proved, however, that Cameron had a strong ground attack as well as a smooth passer in Quarterback Joseph Michalka. All the boys need is the continued support of homefolks and to build up their determination to beat the heck out of the opposition.

This year, Coach Leo Jackson is featuring one of his best backfields with Jimmy Rettig heading the list. Cameron has one of their finest backfield men in Rettig, a 150 Senior. Despite his injuries -- a broken hand and a bad leg -- Rettig has made himself one of the most dangerous backs in the district. The powerful little Cameron Dynamo, along with his backfield teammates, and the able support of the Cameron line should tear the Rockdale team to shreds, and give them a worst licking than what they suffered last Friday night.

Joseph Michalka, the Yoe quarterback, and one of the most important men on the team, is one of the finest team operators the Yoemen have featured. His passing has pulled the team out of several serious spots and if he has Albert Mondrik or Fred Petmecky on the end to snatch those chuks the team should fly as well as ground out gains.

Rugged Buddy Thompson, Fullback Leon Beale, Sturdy Joe Heitman and the capable Clifford Angell, plus Michalka and Rettig, were all prominent in the past points tallyed by the Yoes. The boys all share the backfield duty as well as making the points. When the line of the enemy holds there's always a chance that Michalka can heave a short passs to one of the backs for that extra, needed, yards. John Duncan who is playing his first year with the Yoemen, is also an offensive quarterback and defensive linebacker.

The line which features Albert Mondrik, le; Monroe Bayer, lt; Clyde Wallace, lt; Laddie Dohnalik, lg; Henry Brown, lg; Tom Collins, c; Steve Polzer, g; Benny Massengale, re; Fred Petmecky, re; George Absnaider, rt; Paul Hoelscher, rg; Freddie Fleischer, g; John Solomon, c; John Johnson, t; Burk Barr, e and Clayton Canizales defensive line backer, will be outweighed by the Tigers, who are presenting a murderous forwardwall.

The Rockdale backfield is experienced and will be a continued threat to the Yoemen.

Rockdale has run rugged over Thondale; Schulenburg; and Smithville, while dropping three straight to Caldwell, San Saba and Georgetown.

This is Rockdale's first year in District Double A circuits, and the boys were tagged from the beginning to take the 22-AA crown. Coach Frank O'Neill had 11 letterman returning this year, eight of whom were last year's starters, and boys who were ineligble last year.

The only change in the Cameron lineup will find Clifford Angell at halfback in place of Rettig. Coach Jackson will hold Rettig back until his leg injury has improved. He stated however that if the treatment responds that Rettig will be ready to start. Clyde Wallace will play in the left tackle position offensively and Burk Barr defensively; Henry Brown is the offensive left guard while Dohnalik will play defensively. Right end Petmecky will play in that post offensively while Massengale has charge of that spot defensively. The remainer of the starting lineup will remain as previous.

Rockdale's Coach O'Neill gave a sad story Wednesday morning when he said that possibly three of their regulars would remain on the sidelines due to injuries, and possibly two others will be benched. But he responded with some hope that there was still two more days until the cruical battle with Cameron and there might be a chance of these boys getting ready which indicated that the injuried proving and that the team possibly members on his squad were imwould be back in full strength Friday night.

O'Neill listed his probable starting lineup with James Clore, 43, and Jones, 37 at ends; Tackle spots will be held by Pete Taylor, a massive 230-pounder and Junior Brett Powell, a junior who weighs in at 173; The Crimm twins, James and Jerry, number 52 and 49, respectively, are the starting guards; Jimmy Dick Tuma, a sophomore weighing 160 is at center while Ed Grubbs, number 50, at quarterback; David Yount, 165-pounder and number 55 at right halfback; John Yoakum, sophomore fullback and Richard Strelsky at left halfback.

Friday night the Yoemen will again face a Homecoming crowd, as the Tigers are holding their Homecoming ceremonies and crowning their band sweetheart.

The only comparable basices of the teams is the fact that Caldwell had a harder time beating the Yoemen. The final score was 13-9, while the Hornets ran all over the Tigers 39-19. Also Rockdale fell good and hard to San Saba, a team that was unmercifully beaten by the Killeen 'Roos, who did beat the Yoemen, but really didn't have a picnic out of it. San Saba beat Tigers 13-0; Killeen beat Cameron 20-7 while last week the big 'Roos continued to hold on to their undefeated record by beating San Saba.

The Yoemen will be pointing

The Yoemen will need the victory Friday night in order to remain in the running for District champs. It's an important rival battle for the two teams, and even if the teams were battling it out to stay out of the celler, it would be a murderous affair.

their arrows in three directions this week -- first, at the Tigers; -- second, at the Milam County Title, and third, but not last, the jackpot -- District 22-AA crown.

Game time is 8 p. m. Don't let your hometeam down, go to the game Friday night.

9 Given Driver License Tests Here Wednesday

Examiner Patrolman C. B. James of the Department of Public Safety, who gives Drivers License tests at the Courthouse every Monday reported that four people passed the tests for drivers license this Monday.

Nine were tested during the day, with one failing the rule test, three failing the outside test, one failing both and four passing both.

He said that most people have trouble with parrellel parking, stop signs and illegal turns not made from the proper lane. He added that most people are very lax in their hand signals, not giving the signals clearly as outlined in the handbook.

Most of the trouble in the written test, he stated, came not from signs and their meanings but from some of the more technical rules.

He commented very favorably on the good cooperation the Safety Department has received in connection with license holders sending in renewal cards.

Written tests start in the courthouse at 9 a. m. and outside testing begins at 12 noon every Monday in Cameron.

Thornhills Killed In Head-On Crash

Russell Lynn, two years old, and Patricia Gail, six months old, were orphaned when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thornhill were killed in a head-on- collision with a truck near Klamath Falls, Ore., last Tuesday.

The father of the two infants died Saturday night at the Klamath Falls hospital, without regaining consciousness and his wife, Ina Bell Thornhill, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe King of McFarland, was killed instantly.

The Thornhills were former residents of Cameron, with her ister, Mrs. Lonnie Gaines still living here. They moved to Delano, California where Mr. Thornhill was working.

Russell and Patricia have returned home to McFarland with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. King.

Mrs. Lenora Parker of Ventura, the only occupant of the car who survived, told King that Brown had just left a field in which they had all been working, and soon after he entered the highway he started to pass a car ahead of him. He saw a truck, driven by George Cofield of Shafter, heading for them and tried to pull back in line, but the truck struck the right side of the car, smashing it completely. Two brothers, George and Mercy Cofield died in the truck. Brown was the driver of the ill fated automobile.

Herbert Schroeder, Former Milam 4-H'er Praised For VA Work

Herbert Schroeder, a former Milam County 4-Her, is holding his own at Columbus where he is the vocational agricultural instructor at the high school there.

Schroeder, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Schroeder of the Sharp Community, was born and reared in Milam County and graduated from the Sharp High School. He later received his degree from Texas A & M College.

Recently, the Vocational Agricultural department of Columbus High School was selected as a student training center by Texas A & M college agricultural education department.

The selection of Columbus high school was based on the kind of program developed by Schroeder with high school students and farmers. Attention was given to the program of instruction; the Future Farmer program, the facilities of the school for vocational agriculture, and the program of work for adult farmers.

There are more than 1000 departments of vocational agriculture in Texas, and A & M uses approximately 30 departments for this purpose each year.

E. V. Walton of the A & M college agricultural education department said that Schroeder was considered an outstanding teacher of vocational agricultural and well qualified to help in the training of other young men for the profession.

Fix Christmas Boxes For VA Hospital

Each member of the Sam Tyson Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary volunteered to prepare a Christmas package to be distributed at the Veteran's Hospital in Temple at their joint meeting with the DAV Chapter Eight Tuesday evening, October 19, in the DAV Memorial Hall.

It was stated, at the meeting, that anyone wishing to participate in this project can leave their contribution with Mrs. Mary Frances Green, chairman of this program.

Mr. Logan, Jack's father, a former resident of Cameron is very ill in his sons home in Houston.

Laying hens need 13 to 14 hours of light daily to keep up top egg production. It is time to turn on the lights in the laying house. Increase the lighting period as the days become shorter. One 40-watt bulb for each 200 square feet of floor space will do the job.

Right Kind Of Fertilizer Is Important To Grain

There's more to growing small grain pastures for winter grazing than putting seed into the ground. Plenty of the right kind of fertilizer and early planting will increase materially the pasture's value, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist at Texas A & M College System Extension Service.

Oats, rye, barley and wheat contain feed nutrients not found in drouthy pastures, says Thornton. These grains contain up to 20 percent protein at their peak grazing stage.

Ryegrass and rescuegrass also give efficient winter grazing in areas where adapted.

Early seeded small grains offer best possiblilities for succulent fall grazing. And the use of fertilizers improve the chances, says Thornton. On East Texas sandy soils where legumes were not turned under, small grains should be fertilized with 300 pounds of 5-10-5 or 4-12-4 to the acre at planting time. Side dress later in the fall with 20 to 40 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre and apply on a similar application in the spring.

Thirty to 40 pounds actual nitrogen per acre at planting in the Blacklands of north and central Texas and on the heavier soils of the West Cross Timbers areas will increase a pasture's value.

On sandy and sandy loam soils of the same areas, Thornton suggests 200 pounds of 5-10-5 at planting and a 20 to 40 pound nitrogen top dressing per acre in the spring.

Sixty-five to 135 pounds of ammonium nitrate, 130 to 250 pounds of sodium nitrate or 100 to 200 pounds of ammonium sulphate will supply the nitrogen.

Soil tests accurately determine fertilizer needs of the soil, says Thornton. County agents have additional information on methods of making a soil test.

Chairs, Amendment Four Discussed By Bar Association

Members of the local Bar Association decided to take matters in their own hands at their recent meeting and requisition chairs for the lawyers in the bar at the District Courtroom.

A committee composed of Jack Prescott, Don Humble and Ed Gunn were appointed to appear before the commissioners court to request the chairs.

Convened attorneys discussed the fourth amendment to be voted on in the November 2 general election and Emory B. Camp, Jim Miller and William C. Black were appointed to a committee which will favorably publicize the amendment.

The fourth amendment, endorsed by Governor Allan Shivers, the State Legislature and both Democratic and Republican 1954 conventions, provides for the transfer of unneeded money in the Confederate Pension fund to a State Building Commission for construction of a state court building and a state office building.

The 66-year old Capitol Building allegedly burst its seas as far a office space is concerned long ago. State agencies are housed in a 192 block area in the city of Austin at a cost of $250,000 annually in rentals. The Supreme Court and State Courts in the Capitol Building are so crowded that the supreme court justices are located on separate floors and do not have an office large enough for a private conference.

The State Library and Archives long ago resorted to putting valuable records in a moldy basement as the only available place to store them.

The publicity committee said that the amendment deserves recognition and acceptance by the general public.

Ex-students from throughout the State will be returning to Southwest Teachers College for the annual Homecoming celebration November 5 and 6. The graduates of '04, '24, '34, and '44 will be the honor classes.

Income Tax Free Institutions Must Not "Politick"

District Director R. L. Phinney stated today that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has alerted District offices of the Internal Revenue Service to one of the major changes in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 that may affect organizations claiming exempt status under the Federal Tax laws.

Scetion 501 (c) (3) of the 1954 Code, which corresponds generally to section 101 (6) of the 1939 Code, exempts from the income tax certain religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational organizations. But the new Code contains a provision specifically requiring, as a condition to exemption, that the organization "does not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office."

This provision, Director Phinney said, is applicable not only to organizations establishing exemption after the date of enactment of the 1954 Code, but to organizations already having been granted exemption under section 101 (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

Violation of the provision results in an organization losing its tax exempt status.

Cost-Conscious Livestock Farmers To Use New Feed

Many cost conscious live stock raisers will let their animals feed themselves a salt and protein supplement mixture this winter to help cut labor outlays.

Research has shown salt a satisfactory "limiter" in the consumption of concentrates, says J. K. Riggs, professor of animal husbandry at Texas A. & M. College. By varying the salt percentages, the pounds of supplement consumed by livestock daily can be regulated closely. Cattle will eat the mixture until they can take no more salt, Riggs explains.

He says a mixture of 35 pounds of salt and 65 pounds of supplement allows animals to consume two pounds of supplement daily. Twenty to 25 percent salt will allow animals about three pounds while an increase to 40 or 45 percent salt lets the animals take in about one pound of supplement.

A plentiful water supply is a "must" for cattle using this system, Riggs continues. Ample water must be available to remove excess salt from their systems.

All livestock are assured their share of the supplement and weaker, timid animals get their time at the feed trough, too.

Self-feeding of salt-supplement mixtures is not new. It first began in Texas along the Pecos River about 1934. Labor shortages of World War II probably stimulated its use more than any single factor.

In Freer, a neighbor and friend, Mrs. C. A. Weatherly cared for the two younger sons, Murry, 6, and Donald, 3.

When Mr. McDonald, who was hunting in Colorado, was contacted, he rushed to the side of his critically ill wife and his grief-stricken son, Bert, 17.

an editorial . . .

Law is an interesting profession, two factions of thought presenting their case for the ultimate decision of the court on differentiating right from wrong, black from white.

Mayor O. B. Horstmann, professing no knowledge of the law but with an instinctive knowledge of ethics, principles and the importance of the city ordinances, is to be commended for his decisions in the Corporation Court Friday when he fined Charles C. Smith, Jr. for a parking ticket violation and dismissed the case of Hinton H. Pruett on a technicality; Instead of entering the verdict of not guilty, which a person, with a thought for personal regard instead of regard for the greatest advantage and good of the community might have done. So that these men and others so charged may be brought again before justice on the same charges.

Jurisprudence is defined in Blacks Law Dictionary as "The philosophy of law, or the science which treats the proinciples of positive law and legal relations." Further in the definitation is the phrase," . . . its function is to ascertain the principles on which legal rules are based, so as not only to classify those rules in their proper order and show the relation in which they stand to one another, but also to settle the matter in a manner in which new or doubtful cases should be brought under the appropiriate rules."

Mayor Horstmanns decisions were in every way astute, and in every way instilled with the true meaning of jurisprudence.

Bulldogs Stomp Caldwell 45-0 In Fourth District Game Friday

The Cameron Bulldogs made hay while the making was good Friday night on the Yoe Field as they whipped the Caldwell eleven, 45-0 in a conference game. It was homecoming for the O. J. Thomas High School Ex's, and they were greeted warmly by the Bulldog eleven who ate up the Caldwell squad.

The Bulldogs made their touchdowns in every quarter of the game, tallying two in the first; one in the second two in the third and one in the fourth quarter.

The Caldwell game is the fourth conference game for the Bulldogs, who have won three and lost one.

Hubert DeBois spirted over the goal line for the first two TD's; McKinly Petty made the third touchdown while James Dicky added the fourth. Lawrence Roberts rushed to the fifth and Johnny Wright and Don Campbell added

The B Bulldogs only made three of seven extra point attempts with Campbell, quarterback for the Do s passing to Turner for the two and DeBose plunged over for the third. Presented to the crowd the crowning Queen was Miss Charlotte Turner, a member of graduating class. Also presented was Miss Geneva Anderson of Rockdale, Mrs. Homecoming and a member of the 1914 class. The O. J. Thomas band, only six weeks old, also performed at half time. The band, which consists of about 40 members, is directed by Mr. Howard.

Standouts for the Bulldogs included DeBose, Johnny Wright, Petty, James Dickey, Roberts, Bill Campbell and Don Campbell in the backfield while in the line James Turner, Franklin Malone, Johnny Nelson, Q. C. Pratt, R. L. Rose, Chas. Hobbs and James Ellison stood out.

Aycox High of Rockdale will be the Bulldog's next conference foe when they clash next Wednesday night in Rockdale. This is expected to be a nip and tuck battle, as each team has lost only one district game.

Taylor is on top in the district, having beaten both O. J. Thomas and Aycox, but still has three the final two.

Ken Raley, Jr. Now Weighs 10 Pounds

Many weeks ago a proud father came by the office of The Daily Midget maintaining that he had been neglected. Today proof to the contrary is being offered.

Kenneth W. Raley, Jr. is now one month and 15 days old. He was born in the Newton's Hospital September 8, weighing seven pounds and one ounce. He now weights 10 pounds and five ounces and looks exactly like himself.

Area Football Statistics

Quarterback Cleve (Slippery) Sapp of the Rosebud Black Panthers proved himself the outstanding back of the game Friday night as the guided his team to an upset 7-0 win over the favored Belton Tigers. The underdog Rosebud 11 pushed across the game's lone touchdown late in the third quarter on a fake reverse from eight yards out.

The Killeen Kangaroos hopped all over the fumbling San Saba Armadillos to the tune of 34-14 Friday night. Although the victory was the 'Roos first in District 21-AA competition, it was their seventh straight in season play to leave them among the state's fast-dwindling list of undefeated and untied teams. The Killeen 11 ground out 29 first downs and 337 yards rushing after recovering seven San Saba fumbles.

The Georgetown Eagles flew past the Rockdale Tigers 25-6 Friday night in a District 22-AA opener for both teams. It was Georgetown all the way as the piled up 306 yards rushing to 153 for Rockdale.

Tailback Brownell Smith accounted for three touchdowns and set up two others as he led the Lampasas Badgers to a 30-20 District 21-AA victory over the Hamilton Bulldogs Friday night. The game was watched by a capacity Lampasas homecoming crowd.

"Kindness Will Express Itself" Sermon By Dr. Mark C. Magers

"Be Ye Kind One to Another" (Ephesians 4:32)

We can't all be learned, we can't all be eloquent, we can't all be witty, we can't all be rich, we can't all be great, but we all can be kind. In asking us to be kind, we can do. He never asks us to do the impossible. Kindness is a quality we can all possess and develop and exercise it and enjoy it where ever we are. We don't need to go to Washington or Chicago or Atlanta or journey to the Rocky Mountains or fly to Europe or Asia, or touch the islands of the sea in order to find a place where we may be kind. We can be kind right here in Cameron - in your home, office or store.

If we seek and possess kindness for our own, it will express itself in three ways - our thoughts, our words, our deeds.

1. The burden of unkind thoughts is heavy, and they cast a shadow over our path. A hostile thought may remain unspoken, yet it will hurt the soul. Harboring thoughts of dislike, hatred, jealousy, revenge and the like not only affect and disturb the quiet of the soul, but they also are reflected in blood pressure, nervous tension, digestion, and other ailments of the body. Therefore, for our physical and spiritual health, we need to get rid of unkind thoughts. On the other hand, kind thoughts express themselves in happy face, joyous hearts and peaceful souls. Our inner thoughts are in reality the fountains of our lives. Paul, therefore, said, "Whatsoever are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report ... think on these things."

Kind thinking will lead to our forgiving our fellow men, and that qualifies us to receive forgiveness from God for our sins against Him. Our need is then to forgive and to forget. If we remember the unkindness of someone to us, we shall always be troubled by it and tempted to do something to avenge it. There is a reason why God said He would forgive our sins

2. Unkind words inflict deep and God is asking something of us that fortands oothe the heart, and strengthen the purpose. The tongue is man's glory and also his shame. The Psalmist's prayer, "Let the words of my mouth be acceptable in Thy sight" may well be ours. The tongue may praise God or profane Him, it may encourage man or abuse him. Kind hearts like to speak kind words and unkind hearts speak unkind words - "Be ye kind".

3. Kindness in the heart expresses itself in kind deeds. Our kind deeds are the ones that live on and will never be forgotten. Wordsworth wrote. "That best portion of a good man's life - his little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and love "We may forget many of the kind deeds we do, but God does not forget them".

Jesus was once describing a scene in the last judgement in which He said to one group, "Come ye blessed, inherit the Kingdom and enter into the joys of thy Lord, for I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was sick and in prison and you visited me." They had evidently forgotten any such acts of kindness of their own so they said unto Him, "When did we do these things?" Jesus had not forgotten for He said, "Inasmuch as you did it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, you did it unto Me."

There will be some happy surprises in the judgement as we meet the kind deeds done on earth, and some very unhappy ones as we meet our unforgiven sins which Jesus can't forget.

It is your privilege and mine to be kind one to another, forgiving one another.

"Have you had a kindness shown
--pass it on -- pass it on
'Twas not given for thee alone
--pass it on -- pas it on
Let it travel through the years
--till in heaven the deed appears,
Pass it on -- Pass it on."

Since kind thoughts and kind deeds spring from a king heart

"Be ye kind one to another."

Army Maneuvers To Take Place At Fort Hood

Army organization in light of the atomic age will take place at Fort Hood next spring. A cooperation of land owners in that area has been asked by Lt. General I. D. White, Commanding general of the Fourth Army.

More than 30,000 troops, including men from the First Armored division at Fort Hood, will participate in the fire operations, which is scheduled for February.

Land area to be included in the operation is the general area bounded by Comanche, Meridian, McGregor, Gatesville, Fort Hood, Copperas Cove, Marble Falls, Junction and Coleman.

Name of the operation is understood to be "Blue Duck".

Every Male Over 18 Years Must Register

Every male citizen of the United States, born since August 30, 1922 and over eighteen years of age is required to register with a local draft board. Whenever the local board suspects an individual, within the age of registration, of failure to register and after contacting him by letter requesting information regarding his Selective Service status fails to secure his compliance, may report the facts to the United States Attorney for investigation.

Men with previous service or in the reserves or National Guard are nevertheless required to register. Their liability for service is then determined by the board in accordance with Selective Service regulations.

If individuals required to be registered have not done so, they will not be penalized if they will report to a draft board office for registration now, but continued failure to do so may result in fine or imprisonment as provided for in the Universal Military Training and Service Act.

Beef, Rice, Turkey And Eggs Plentiful On November List

Beef is featured with rice, turkeys and eggs on November's plentiful foods list.

Broilers and fryers, pork and dairy products, canned tuna, frozen fish and shrimp are other high protein foods on the USDA's monthly report.

So many foods are in abundant supply it was difficult to decide which ones rated a place on the November list, says John J. Slaughter of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Also plentiful are almonds, walnuts, filberts, dry beans, dates, prunes, vegetable shortening and salad oils.

Legumes add nitrogen to the soil.

Pagel brought in witnesses to testify that the picker for which he paid $5,000 wasn't worth more than $1,000. He testified that it failed to pick about half of his cotton and wasted 30 to 35 per cent of it on the ground or stalk. He said that the salesman who sold him the picker assured him that under normal conditions, it would satisfactorily pick cotton in the vicinity of his farm.

The implement company's attorney maintained that the picking time in 1951 had not been normal in that badly-timed rains led to the bolls not opening fully. Pagel testified that it was a normal or better than normal crop and the jury believed him. He also testified that when he signed the sales contract, it was represented to him as a note and mortgage.

and other reliable material on the sand formations around Cameron in relation to a dependable water supply. He advised councilmen that although there was "no use of drilling here in Cameron at all" that across the river, near Minerva, Cameron could get ample water supply from the same sands supplying Rockdale, Hearne, Calvert and Lexington.

Further delving into the water situation Taylor pointed out that the water is located from five to eight miles from Cameron, that the water would probably be very good and very plentiful but to get a more accurate picture test wells should be made. He is to meet later with members of the water committee composed of John Andres, Gene Blake and Robert Weems for more detailed information and approximate costs.

One pertinent factor he pointed out about the current water supply was that the present two-and-one half million gallon water reservoir located at the water plant should definitely be covered.

Mayor O. B. Horstmann later suggested to the council that even if the city is unable to have wells drilled or have a filtering plant installed the reservoir should be covered.

After Taylor s departure Schafer of the State Health Department was introduced and told councilmen that he was present to answer their questions, if any, and not to try to sell them anything.

Talk centered around the sewer disposal plant with Andres humorously saying at the outset, "Let's not ask any questions." and then later in the same vein asking if the plant had any good points, that the council knew all the bad ones.

From a more serious viewpoint Schaffer stated, "well, you need a new plant". He said that there was no hope to rehabilitate the present plant, that the sewage is now undergoing only the primary treatment with the secondary treatment part of the plant completely out of operation.

He added that the plant was completed in 1924 when the population was between 4,299 and 4,565 with the plant designed to handle a population of 5,000 at the most.

Schaffer then told councilmen that the water supply, which the council is anxious to get state approved, is judged for approval on these three things: Pollution hazards, protection and quality. He added that if the state didn't think the city water supply was safe they would certainly say so.

10th street

Weems plowed into the 10th Street problem and councilmen, in an all out effort to get the problem solved once and for all stated that in all respect to the school board an in difference to the people on that street they would go along with a solution offered by Weems and several members of the school board to cut the radius points back seven feet, so that it won't interfere with the street or eliminate the schools project.

Weems was authorized to go ahead and start the project of moving the radius points immediately so that the street in that vicinity can be completed.

Trying to avert another delay councilmen said that Weems could contact members of the school board for their approval instead of waiting to start the project until they were contacted at a meeting, and that out of courtesy the Council would notify the board by letter of their action.

Next up for discussion was the proposal by some of the councilmen that a letter be written the state highway department that an 80 right of way on Highway 36 forun Kemp Street to Travis Street, at no cost to the Highway department, be assured. The only "no" in the matter was by Roy Griffith, who stated that he could not approve the motion since the council had no way of knowing wheter or not they could get the right of way after they had promised it.

At the conclusion of the discussion it was decided that the resolution of the council would be sent by letter to the Highway Department at which time they would also request that field notes be started immediately.

Street and house numbering was the next problem up for discussion.

Milton Schiller stated, "I don't care how we do it but let's do it right."

He added that the street problem is becoming a larger problem all the time since out-of-towners inquire about directions and when old numbers and names are given they generally come right back to complain about not being given accurate directions.

Schiller put the whole matter in a nutshell with "gentlemen we dont know what we want, that is our trouble".

Mayor Horstmann replied that the council should, in this particular matter, "Get engineers to tell us what we don't know".

The street committee was authorized to get in touch with engineers and reach a definite decision on the best method to obtain accurate marking at the lowest cost to the city.

Finally the councilmen wound up with a discussion on the garbage situation. They pointed out that many citizens had called various councilmen about a garbage truck operated by an individual, thinking that it was under city jurisdiction, when it is really privately operated.

Private companies are being written by members of the council to see if it would be feasible to operate a garbage pickup in Cameron on a semi-weekly basis, with conclusions to be offered at the next regular meeting of the council.

PARKING FINE—

Prescott, with a kindly demeanor, gave an assenting nod and said that as a representative of the defendant he was ready to let the court hear the evidence without jury.

Baskin, in a flurry of sudden activity with his papers, looked rather takenaback and exclaimed, "Well, I wasn't looking for that."

After the mirth of the convened lawyers had subsided and proper decorum once again reigned in the courtroom City officer Marshall Terry was called to the stand and sworn in.

Looking like a clean-shorn Santa Clause, with a wealth of human kindness, Terry forthrightly answered all questions put to him, deliberating at times momentarily for accuracy. In his testimony he stated that he had been city policeman or parking meter policeman, as some of the public called him, for four years and that during that time it was his duty to put tickets on cars parked in front of meters bearing red flags although, "I've been taking it upon myself to tell them that the meters needed coins", if the car owner could be found.

Baskin asked all the relevant questions about the meters, proving by Terry's statement that the meters registered from 12 minutes to two hours, based on the amount of coins inserted in the machine and that if there was coin in the machine at least a portion of the meter was white indicating that money had been put in by the car owner.

Upon the question by Baskin, the attorney for the state, on whether or not Terry knew the cars, he was again placed momentarily in a quandry when Terry answered "Yes sir", but upon further questioning Terry stated that he did not, as a matter of fact, recognize all the cars.

Terry was then asked to outline the procedure in giving a parking ticket. It was entered on the record that there were three copies of the ticket, the original which is placed on the car, the second or pink copy which is filed with Miss Leola Richter, city clerk and the third copy which remains in the book.

Baskin then handed the witness a pink slip, later proved to be a parking ticket second copy, made out to Judge Smith on June 21, 1954 and asked him if he ever saw it before. Terry said that yes, he had made out that ticket to Judge Smith.

He further remembered on the stand that on that particular morning he had been accompanied by Bill Richter and that they saw the Judge park his car and leave the vicinity without putting coin in the machine and that later, upon his regular rounds of the meters, found that the flag was still red so he put the afore mentioned ticket under the windshield wiper on the Judge's car.

Next Baskin asked when Terry had last seen this particular ticket. Terry debated orally, "Well now, the last time I saw that ticket was....." when he was abjectly stopped by Baskin who answered that the last time Terry had seen that ticket was two or three days ago when he, Baskin, had shown it to him. Terry agreed that that was correct, that he had seen the ticket only two or three days ago for the second time.

He was then dismissed by the state counsel and Prescott quickly intervened with a statement that he had no questions for the witness. That the defendant admitted to the above testimony.

Bill Richter was called to the stand, but returned to his seat when Baskin decided to first question Leola Richter, city clerk working with the City Secretary.

After taking the stand Miss Richter was asked if she had anything to do with the parking ticket enforcement and she answered that yes she did, she sent out the letters of reminder that the parking tickets had not been paid to the ticket holders.

She said that after she sends out the first letter she waits one week and if the ticket is still unpaid she sends out the second letter.

Next she examined the parking ticket made out to Judge Smith on June 21 and said that she remembered the ticket and that the letters had been sent out.

Baskin asked if any reply had been received or whether the letters had been ignored completely and Miss Richter said that no reply had been received.

The courtroom was stunned into a momentary silence followed by covered smiles when Baskin swore in Mayor Horstman, Judge of the case, to offer evidence that the ticket in question was one of many issued in regular procedure by the city policeman.

Prescott smilingly reminded the counsel for the state that he thought that it was "highly irregular" for the counsel to swear in the Judge to testify before himself.

Mayor Horstmann quiety stated that this was true, that he had seen that ticket before.

After resting their cases Baskin told the court that he saw no need for a long speech that Smith had flagrantly violated the parking meter ordinance of the city and should be fined accordingly by the court.

Prescott addressed the court and with verbal implication said that he was not, under law, prepared to bear the burden of the defense or to prove the states case since "We just don't feel they have one", since ample proof had not been submitted.

Baskin repeated that the defendant was guilty and with a pushing nod asked the court to render a decision, that the case had been presented to him and a verdict was in order, and asked if the party was not guilty.

Mayor Horstmann hurriedly stated, "guilty" and then on second thought recessed the court for a short time while he thought the matter over.

After re-convening the court Mayor Horstmann with dignity entered the verdict that Smith was guilty and placed a fine of $15.00 on the case.

Prescott asked for the necessary time to place bond and enter an appeal to the County Court, which was granted by the judge.

Next on the agenda of the court was the case of Hinton H. Pruett, also charged with violating the parking meter ordinance.

After presenting the initial charge Emory Camp, counsel for the defense, in an accusing voice thundered that the defendant had no statement to offer that they were not ready.

Baskin, with a patient voice said there was no reason for their not being ready and asked that the court proceed with the case.

Mayor Horstmann asked if there was any valid reason why the defense was not ready and Camp answered no. Baskin said there was no reason why they had to be ready and the case continued.

A second copy of a ticket issued to the automobile belonging to Hinton Pruett was produced by Baskin and the necessary information divulged.

Camp, with an amused countenance but authoratative voice, declared that he, as representative for the defense, objected to any and all proceedings.

Baskin stated "That's all right."

Camp said, with a smile, "Well, I didn't want to disappoont you".

Baskin then said that he wanted to read a paper while they waited.

Camp retorted, "That's all right, I'll object to that too."

After calling Joe Richter to the stand, but before his testimony, Camp repeated that the defense objected to any and all testimony and claimed that there was a flaw in the papers filed by the plaintiff and asked that a verdict of not guilty be entered.

Mayor Horstmann said that he would dismiss the case and Camp held out for a not guilty charge and protested any other proceedings, on that the charge was on an unlawful complaint.

Baskin said offhandedly, "Oh, just let it be not guilty".

Camp retorted, "You've got plenty more haven't you."

And Baskin said yes, that for that matter he had another ticket issued on the same day to Mr. Pruett.

A final decision from the Judge was a dismissal on a technicality.

Upon contacting the Mayor following the trial he stated that the technicality mentioned involved the matter of the complaint not being in order at the time the trial was brought to court.

He added that the cases will be continued in the future.
